Google Doodle Origins

On August 30, 1998, Google founders Larry and Sergey designed the very first “Google Doodle” for the Burning Man festival, intended to convey that the founders were out of office. The concept of a “Google Doodle” originated from this design. The Google team has now created over 4,000 doodles that celebrate holidays, people, inventions, and events- some well-known such as Halloween and others more obscure such as National Ice Cream Day.

Doodle 4 Google

Each year since 2008, Google has hosted a competition called “Doodle 4 Google” for K-12 students. The winning designers receive prizes ranging from a feature on Google.com to a $30,000 college scholarship, a $50,000 technology package for their school/non-profit, a trip to Google headquarters in California, Google hardware, a celebratory assembly at their school, and more.
